

The image displays a 10x10 grid of 100 hexagonal patterns. Each pattern consists of a white hexagonal area with a black border, containing a unique arrangement of black dots. The dots are positioned at the vertices of a smaller hexagonal grid within each hexagon. The patterns vary in the number of dots (from 1 to 10) and their spatial arrangement, creating a diverse set of visual configurations.